First Sunday in Lent — Romans 5:12-19
WHAT ONE CAN DO

One person can do a lot of damage. As we begin Lent, we remember the story of Adam and the origins of human sin. But we all know how much damage any one person can do, because we have experienced it in our own sinful lives. One person can say and do things that hurt. Such things hurt another person, but they also hurt the very person who commits the offense. In addition, one person's offense may tarnish others - the family, the profession, or the church. One person can do a lot of damage.

At the beginning of Lent it is tempting to wallow in sin. This season does turn our attention to our offenses. This is a perfect time of year to make a good examination of conscience and to bring our sin to the sacrament of Reconciliation.

But there is more to Lent than sin. There is grace.

St. Paul told the Romans that death came into the world through one person's transgression, but "how much more will those who receive the abundance of grace and of the gift of justification come to reign in life through the one Jesus Christ."

One person can do a lot of good. The kindness we perform for another person can bring unexpected joy. And by the death and rising of Christ, sinners are made righteous.

Yes, reflect on sin this Lent, but remember also the grace. Jesus brings life to the world and to you.

We have begun our annual Diocesan Lenten Appeal for all 4 of our parishes. Through this action we provide financial support for the ministries, activities and services made possible throughout the Diocese of Greensburg. The funds raised through this appeal allow the churches to make real impacts on the lives of many people. Without this support, the work of our diocese would suffer. This year we invite the newest members of our community to join in this annual undertaking. However, we need those who have consistently lent their support to once again do the same. Please know that any funds we receive over the diocesan goals for us stay in our parishes.

We ask that your pledge cards be placed in the offertory basket at any weekend Mass or sent directly to the parish offices. Please mark the outside of your envelope with your home church.

Our goal is to complete this appeal within the Lenten Season, but we need your help and support to do so. Please prayerfully consider your DLA pledge.

Thank you, Fr. Paul

What do we do when we start out on a walk and find a shoelace is untied? We stop and tie it. As we set out on our Lenten journey intending to add greater quality to our way of living we are likely to find things that hinder us. It may just be lethargy. Science tells us that any body at rest tends to remain at rest, unless acted on by some external force. It takes some pushing on our part to make a difference.

Other problems reflect the past. For instance, if we find ourselves feeling angry or cross with little provocation, we should discover what's causing it. Has someone hurt us, or have we hurt someone else? For our own sake as well as theirs, we need to reconcile and clear away that obstacle.

Or it may be that we are hindered by failing to realize our own inherent worth or are unaware of our true potential. Lenten time in prayer and meditation can help us see ourselves as we really are, not only the bad but also the good. God gives each of us gifts, potential that often goes unused. Maybe it's a skill or the ability to make others feel better. Use those gifts.

Perhaps we need to remember that the same God who made US, took an earth that was dark and "without form and void" and changed it into our beautiful world. God's grace recreates us, forgives us, and sustains us. With God's help obstacles can be overcome and our lives can find greater quality than we ever thought possible.

Lent can lead us to Church more often for prayer. The Sacraments of Penance and Holy Eucharist should be especially close to us as they enable us to effect changes in ourselves. These Sacraments are building blocks, not only for our parishes, but for ourselves, as they sanctify our existence in this world.

Take the opportunity to receive penance at least once during Lent, maybe at the beginning, and see if we can live a different life for the remainder of the 40 days.

Make the journey to other Masses to receive the Holy Eucharist in addition to SUN Mass. Spend extra time before the Blessed Sacrament which can only deepen the sense of faith.

Spend time in journeying with Christ through the Stations of the Cross.

Let us remember that Easter is our return every year to our own Baptism, and Lent is our preparation for that return - the slow and sustained effort to perform at the end, our own passage into the new life of Christ.

DAYLIGHT SAVINGS TIME STARTS ON SUN, MAR 8. Turn your clocks AHEAD an hour before you go to bed on SAT, MAR 7.

Rite of Sending - The RCIA Process

This Sunday at Immaculate Conception, we will celebrate the RITE OF SENDING with our RCIA. We will then attend the Rite of Election at the Blessed Sacrament Cathedral in Greensburg. These Rites go hand in hand within the process of the Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults. These two rites involve…

- Sending our catechumens, candidates, and sponsors to Bishop Malesic
- Bishop Malesic receiving them along with other individuals from various parishes among our diocese
- Bishop Malesic announcing that they are now the "elect" of God; formally inviting and welcoming them to receive Sacraments at Easter after much preparation, discernment, and prayer
- Returning the elect to our parishes in anticipation of Easter Sacraments in a few short weeks

These symbols should create in them the Spirit-driven need to seek and find the love and peace of Jesus in their lives. As you probably know by now, the Catholic Church is a huge advocate of symbolism. The heart of any rite is how the symbols are presented and received by the catechumens and candidates.

Each rite we celebrate is a passing from one way of understanding the Christian life to another more discerning, zealous approach to the life in Christ we are seeking. Each rite has its place in reminding us of the last rite we have passed from, and builds to a new height and natural progression of the conversion experience. Remember the Rite of Acceptance/Welcome we celebrated a few months ago? This Rite of Sending echoes the steps of that experience while building up to a new more heightened experience. In the Rite of Welcome/Acceptance, our catechumens and candidates were introduced to our community by their sponsors. Our catechumens and candidates embraced the Word of God, and promised to be dedicated to the process.

This weekend, they will once again find themselves standing before our parish community in which they have become a "vital part" of Christ's body. Now is the time for their sponsor/godparent and the parish community to give a testimony that they have experienced true conversion of faith and attest to their commitment to the Catholic community.

What does it mean, "TO BE SENT"?

Each week during the Catechumenate period, our RCIA have been dismissed from the general assembly to further reflect upon the word of God and the homily. They are disciples of Christ in a period of intense training. During this training they are SENT to receive Christ through the Word. When the congregation at Mass are dismissed to go out into the world to love and serve the Lord, they are also SENT forth to do the same. This is a time they can put what they have learned into practice.

At the Rite of Sending, we are preparing to send them to meet with the Bishop who will receive them at the Rite of Election. The Rite of Election is a testimony of their faithfulness to this process in the past year or so. Our RCIA will never be asked to stand alone. They will have their sponsor, team and community members who have been asked to accompany them on this part of their journey. As they continue on this road as "disciples in training," we send our experienced disciples along with them. It is their mission to let the Church know that our catechumens and candidates are ready to be in full communion with the Catholic Community.

Another integral part of this ceremony is the signing of the Book of the Elect by our catechumens (those preparing for Baptism). As our catechumens sign this book, they will seal their covenant with God. Just as they were signed with His cross in the Rite of Welcome/Acceptance, they are now signing a promise to God to know, love, and follow Him throughout their life. As the bishop signs this same book at the Rite of Election, he is receiving our catechumens into the family of Christ. Having been "elected" to receive the sacraments of initiation at the Easter Vigil Mass, Our catechumens/candidates are now referred to as the "elect".

Please continue to pray for our RCIA catechumens, candidates, sponsors, team members, and their families throughout this most important time; and welcome them to the family!

Christ's peace
and our Mother Mary's love,
Mary Sampey

Lent is one of the most well-known things about the Catholic Church.

All sorts of restaurants offer fish or seafood specials on Fridays. And you don't have to be Catholic to enjoy fish fry Fridays. Many are also aware of the special penances asked of us during this season. While it is often simplified to "giving something up", the overall picture is preserved and, generally revered. I know a number of non-Catholics (and likely some Catholics too) who embrace taking up a Lenten observance more readily than they would going to church on Sunday.

I think this is because we appreciate and understand the value that penance has. Like the New Year's resolution, Lent is seen by many as a chance to start anew, to change our habits that need to be changed. It can seem like an opportunity for a self-improvement project.

But Lent is not just a self-improvement project. It is a Church conversion project.

What do I mean? First, Lent is not about improvement but about conversion. Improvement supposes that we are the primary player – that it's up to us to "make it happen". Conversion supposes that we are only secondary – that God is the primary player and we are simply the supporting cast. Therefore, our Lenten journey is not something to be mapped out and planned to the finest detail. It must be something into which we enter, led by the Holy Spirit into the desert with Christ. Our prayer, fasting, and almsgiving are only human actions and are not formulas to earn us anything. But they do support and nourish what God desires to give us, helping us to be more open to God's grace and His will for us in our lives by denying ourselves the things of this world.

Second, Lent is not just about our own conversion of heart but also the Church as a whole. In economics I learned that when person A buys something from person B, then person B uses that money to buy something from person C and C buys from D, soon person A's actions have a ripple effect through the entire economic system.

When we speak of the "economy of salvation" we speak of the activity of the whole Church and how her members are also deeply connected. My sacrifices this Lent are not just about my personal relationship with Christ. They also impact others in the Church – they have a ripple effect on those around me. This is why striving for personal holiness is a task for every Christian – it impacts others in ways unknown to us through the economy of salvation. Even though Jesus invites us to hide our sacrifices so they do not become a matter of personal pride, they are still deeply communal acts in unseen ways.

As such, I would invite you to consider two things. First, just as every sacrifice of the Mass has a public intention, so too our sacrifices can be offered for particular reasons or prayers (and can thus help inspire us to keep our Lenten promises out of love for others!)

Second, check out all of the different opportunities there are in our parishes to tap into the communal component of Lent. Whether it's a holy hour, Bible study, Stations of the Cross, or daily Mass, find a way to connect your personal growth with that of our community. Perhaps the Holy Spirit wants to move you this year beyond self-improvement to something far richer.

If you need pastoral care, PLEASE have someone call the DeVivo Centre and Brady Centre parish offices. Due to HIPPA regulations, we are not notified by hospitals/other care facilities, so we may not know of your particular situation.

If you need Communion brought to you at Mass, you are asked to sit in the handicapped pews. By doing this the Eucharistic Ministers will be able to find you and no one will be overlooked. Thank you for your cooperation in this matter.

We do our best to keep the parish databases current. You can help by letting us know any time your household changes. Please call the DeVivo Centre at 628-6840 or St. Al's Brady Centre at 277-4236 if:

- Your family moves into or out of one of our parishes
